HARDY'S

In offering to the public at this time, HARDY'S GENUINE JAUNDICE BITTERS as a remedy for all Billious complaints, so prevalent everywhere in the vernal season of the year, I do not present any new and untried article puffed up by persons who perhaps are not known to any one, but an old and tried article that has proved itself equal, if not superior, to any remedy of the kind, ever put into the market.

GENUINE

While I do not pretend to say they will cure all diseases human flesh is heir to, I do say they have been used for the last half century, and thoroughly tested by millions, and by those, too, of almost every nation on the globe and in every variety of climate, and have proved themselves, beyond all question, unequaled by any medicine for all BILIOUS and JAUNDICY COMPLAINTS which are so common everywhere, and to prevent contracting infectious diseases peculiar to various climates.

JAUNDICE

These Bitters are not unpleasant to the taste, they are a moderate cathartic, cleanse the Stomach and Bowels of Phlegm and vitiated Bile, strongly invigorate the coats of the Stomach, promote digestion, and restore the loss of appetite. They are invaluable for travelers, seafaring persons, and those exposed to sudden changes of weather in warm climates; to the dyspeptic, and persons of sedentary habits. To such, they afford the most speedy relief when taken according to directions.

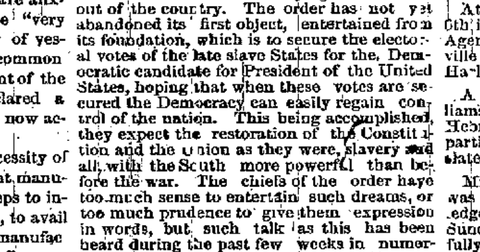
MISS SAWYER'S SALVE.



HERE you have a salve combining soothing and healing properties, with no dangerous ingredient. A remedy at hand for the many pains and aches, wounds and bruises to which flesh is heir. Is more easily applied than many other remedies, never producing a bad effect, but always relieving pain, however severe. It is prepared by Miss Sawyer, who has used it in her own extensive treatment of the sick, for nearly twenty years, with great success. The principal diseases for which this salve is recommended are, Chilblains, Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Old Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Sprains, Burns, Fever Sores, Felons, Pimples, Erysipelas, Sore Eyes, Barber's Itch, Deafness Boils, Ringworms, Corns, Bites of Insects, Cancers, Toothache, Earache, Sore Nipples, Baldness, Swollen Breasts, Itch, Scald Head, Teething, Chapped Hands, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, Croup, Cracked Lips, and Sores on Children. It never fails to cure Rheumatism if properly applied. Rub it on well with the hand three times a day. In several cases it has cured palsied limbs. For Piles it has been discovered to be a sure remedy. Persons that have been afflicted for years have been relieved by a few applications. For Erysipelas it works wonders, allaying the inflammation and quieting the patient. For Chapped Hands it produces a cure immediately. Let those with Salt Rheum obtain this Salve, and apply it freely, and they will find it invaluable. It is good in cases of Scrofula and Tumors. Cancers have been cured with it. The best Salve ever invented for Swollen Breast and Sore Nipples. No way injurious, but sure to afford relief. Sore or Weak Eyes—Rub it on the lids gently, once or twice a day. Cures deafness by putting in the ears on a piece of cotton. For Felons this is superior to anything known. For Pimples this acts like a charm. For Burns and Scalds, apply the Salve at once and it gives immediate relief. For Old Sores, apply once a day.

Not among the least of the invaluable properties of MISS SAWYER'S SALVE are its beneficial effects on the hair. Rubbed on the scalp, in five or six different parts, it promotes the growth of the hair, prevents it turning gray, and on bald spots it produces a new growth of hair. No lady should be without this invaluable article as an indispensable cosmetic for the toilet. It eradicates dandruff and disease from the head, and blotches and pimples from the face.

From Mrs. ELIZABETH COOMBS, Brunswick. Brunswick, April 4, 1867.

MISS SAWYER: I received your letter last evening, and was very glad you concluded to let me take your Salve. I think I can do well with it, and it will be quite an accommodation to my husband, as he cannot get along without it. He has tried everything else and has never found anything that healed his leg as that Salve of yours, and we have both found it to be all, and even more, than you recommend it to be. We have had it in the family five or six years, and have used it for everything, and can truly say we have never found its equal. I use it for a weak back, and it acts like a charm. Mr. Coombs has had a Fever Sore on his leg for thirty years, and would be a cripple to-day if he had not found a remedy in your Salve. It keeps it healed, and takes out the inflammation, proud flesh and swelling, and does for him all that he can ask. I can recommend it for a good many things that you have not, for I use it for everything. I consider it invaluable in a family. If you can put this testimony together, and it can be of any service to you, you are welcome. Yours, &c., ELIZABETH COOMBS.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

If your Druggist is out of the Salve, and neglects to keep supplied, send seventy-five cents as directed below, and receive a box by return mail. [illegible]

THE

CHICAGO, DANVILLE & VINCENNES RAILROAD IS A FINISHED LINE

Running through one of the richest portions of Illinois and connecting Chicago by the shortest route with the celebrated Block Coal fields of Indiana, and by way of Evansville and Nashville with the entire South. Its mortgage debt is $2,500,000, or about $18,500 to the mile. Although the road is but just opened, it is already earning, after all operating expenses are paid, on all its bonds. While railroad bonds may be plenty, those upon finished and paying lines and for so small a sum to the mile are seldom in the market.

More than the Entire Interest

We do not hesitate to recommend these Bonds as unusually safe. They are attended with none of the uncertainties of projected enterprises, and the prompt payment of the interest, and the final payment of the principal, are as certain as any future financial event.

The Bonds are for $1,000 each, have forty years to run, and bear interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum, payable on the first of April and October, both principal and interest being payable in gold in New York.

We are selling them daily to the most careful investors.

LETTER FROM PORTLAND.

PROHIBITION—MANUFACTURES—THOROUGH-BRED STOCK—REFORM.

Portland, April 10, 1872.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

We are now in the mazy midst of our temperance law and its operation is a serious hinderance to the convival enjoyment of the "Sairey Gamps" and indeed of all the masculine members of the Gamp family resident in Portland.

The "drouth," so-called, continues without abatement and causes an unusual consumption of Sebago. Many of the old topers are non-plussed and sadly bemoan the absence of their accustomed potions. Others wander about the town in a semi-muddled frame of mind, vainly endeavoring to work their way inside the "ring" where the liquid is "plenty and to spare." Others sullenly accept the situation and in default of their life-giving tonic surrender in despair to the spirit of dyspepsia.

The laughable incidents are so many, and follow one after another in such multiform variety, that they seem to keep the "street" in a uniformly good-natured state of mind.—Our Sheriff has not been very Perry-phrastic in his notices to the dealers, but has followed up his pithy warnings by sudden descents upon the violators of the law. Whatever may be thought of the severity of the enactments, one thing appears certain; while the law remains intact it bids fair to be rigorously and impartially enforced in this vicinity. Surprise at the action of the Legislature in making such strenuous provisions, is eclipsed only by the seeming apathy with which the enforcement of that legislation is regarded.—Many are the views taken of the subject and of its bearing upon the great cause of temperance. Some openly declaim against all such restrictions as the law requires; another class deplore the wanton waste of means and time, and advocate the substitution of license for prohibition, while others ardently champion the cause of prohibition in the very essence of its rigidity. But, by far the larger class, the non-committal, watch with interest all developments, and since the question is now brought forward so prominently are anxious to witness its enforcement to the "very letter of the law." Thus the "heresy of yesterday" is gradually becoming the "common place of to-day" and the enforcement of the provisions of the law which was declared a few days since as unwarrantable is now accepted as unavoidable.

Portland has awakened to the necessity of fostering and encouraging her present manufacturing industries, and is taking steps to induce capitalists from other States, to avail themselves of her advantages as a manufacturing center. The "Forest City" offers undoubted facilities for an infinite variety of manufactures, and even now exhibits a far more diversified list than is generally supposed. The Board of Manufactures in their concise and yet comprehensive circular enumerate these advantages and the inducements tendered by the city to all wishing to locate here. There seems to be no reason why Maine should not take a prominent position as a manufacturing State. It is an anomaly (almost a libel on nature) that Lynn and Lowell and Salem should thrive and increase in wealth and population, while Portland, Augusta, Lewiston and Bangor remain so nearly stationary. Portland has taken an advance step, and has opened her doors to manufactures, to see what can be done by way of competition with her Massachusetts neighbors. Her citizens are determined to have more manufactures if the liberal inducements offered by the city, and her acknowledged facilities for production and transportation are to have any weight in the decision. It is gratifying to note that Bangor and other cities and towns are moving vigorously in the same direction.

During the past winter Mr. J. M. Corcoran the noted breeder of Compton, Canada, has been making some fine importations of thorough-bred stock, having them arrive by the British steamers and then forwarded by the Grand Trunk R. R. to his farm in Canada.—He is a careful breeder and is doing a great work in improving the stock of the Province. His importations have been mainly Ayrshires and Durhams which were imported direct from England and are in truth splendid specimens of their respective breeds. He has also received several Clydesdale stallions, large, compact animals, eliciting the warmest praises from our local horsemen.

The old Washingtonian movement, in all its strength and depth, is once again sweeping over the State and is penetrating its vital principle into all classes of society. A rousing temperance meeting was held in City Hall one evening last week, when delegations from Bath, Gardiner, Hallowell and Augusta were present and infused some of their enthusiasm into the minds of their Portland brethren. The speakers earnestly expressed their hope and belief in the efficiency and power of this "new departure" and implored the aid and support of all who would witness a genuine, radical temperance reform throughout the State.

A Reform Club is being organized here, and its formation is destined to exert a great change in the community. "Hard" drinkers, moderate drinkers, now-and-then-a-glass drinkers meet on common ground and together with the rum-seller unite in their efforts to forward the movement so auspiciously inaugurated. BREWSTER.

The English question was the subject of some conversation at the Cabinet meeting on Tuesday, but not with a view to any official action in relation thereto.

THE KU-KLUX KLAN.

PRESENT CONDITION AND PURPOSES OF THE ORDER—STATEMENTS BY OBSERVERS IN THE SOUTH—THE KLAN STILL ORGANIZED AND WORKING FOR DEMOCRATIC ASCENDENCY—THE OATH OF THE SUPREME DEGREE.

[From the N. Y. Times.]

Although the strict enforcement of the Kuklux law in some portions of the South has had the effect to generally decrease the outrages committed by the Klan, there is abundant evidence that the atrocious order is not extinct, but is only waiting for the coming of a more favorable time to again commence those fiendish murders and tortures which have made the name of Kuklux more infamous than any of history. Recent arrivals in this city from the Southern States show that the condition of the South has been much improved in consequence of the sternness of the United States officials in dealing with these miscreants. In those counties where there have been a number of convictions under the Kuklux law, the order is entirely extinct, and in other sections it is quiescent, but it is yet an organized body, having its distinctive signs and passwords, and holding meetings regularly, but not attempting for the present to commit any very serious outrages. A recent incident in Charlotte, N. C., shows the straits to which the Kuklux have been reduced by the vigor of the Administration, for the recreation indispensible to a subject of the Invisible Empire. The last heavy snow-storm reached so far South as this town, and the inhabitants were astonished to find their streets covered with snow. The circumstance was seized by a number of young men, who were all recognized as members of the Kuklux, to wreak a little of their spite upon "niggers and white radicals" without incurring any of the penalties of that horrible unconstitutional law of Congress by which so many of their brethren had been sent to jail for merely killing or maiming human beings for their political opinions. Anxious to indulge their proclivities, and at the same time avoid the law, these fellows hit upon the happy expedient of snow-balling the objects of their hatred, and did it in such a way that the sport was almost as exhilarating as their old time method of tying men and women naked to trees and whipping them until they died from exhaustion. Every negro and every white man known to be a Radical, who that morning passed the corner where these miscreants were gathered, was pelted with snow-balls, packed so tight as to be as hard as rocks.—These missiles were so effective that several who were struck by them fell insensible, to the delight of the chivalry, and one poor negro, who was thus stunned, was pounced upon by the gang, who trampled upon him until he was so badly injured that his recovery from his wounds was for some time doubtful. Thirty persons were maltreated to a greater or less extent by these ruffians, and the eyewitness, from whom this statement is derived and to whom all the assailants and assailed are well known, assured the writer that to his positive knowledge every one of the former were members of the Kuklux, and all the victims well-known Republicans. During the time the "sport" was going on, many white men known to be in sympathy with the Klan passed and repassed without molestation, which fact was held to be a strong proof that the affair was intended to be something more serious than appeared upon the surface.

This incident is declared by recent observers in the South to be typical of the present condition of affairs. Just now there are none of those horrible outrages committed, the recital of which, before the Kuklux Committee of Congress made the civilized world shudder, and the evidence of which, produced before the court which tried some of the miscreants, made Reverdy Johnson throw up his case in disgust. But the Kuklux themselves—but only among themselves—say plainly that their present inactivity is enforced, and that when a propitious time arrives, they will recommence the work of flaying the Radicals out of the country. The order has not yet abandoned its first object, entertained from its foundation, which is to secure the electoral votes of the late slave States for the Democratic candidate for President of the United States, hoping that when these votes are secured the Democracy can easily regain control of the nation. This being accomplished, they expect the restoration of the Constitution and the Union as they were, slavery and all, with the South more powerful than before the war. The chiefs of the order have too much sense to entertain such dreams, or too much prudence to give them expression in words, but such talk as this has been heard during the past few weeks in numerous "dens," as the conclaves of the Klan are now called among the rank and file whose hopes of the long expected "good time coming," have, of late, been greatly strengthened by the supposed disintegration of the Republican Party as a consequence of the Cincinnati movement. The least sanguine of these savages expect that the Republican Party will be so weakened by these dissensions that the Kuklux law will be repealed, and they be once more free to murder and maim Radicals without molestation by the United States Government. These statements are not the coinage of the writer, but are the gist of conversations had with men who listened to them in the very "dens" of the Order. These witnesses declare that the Klan does not, as a general thing, expect to overthrow the Government by force, but only hope to obtain possession of it by intimidation and these frauds upon the ballot-box which they have learned from their Tammany allies in the North. At the same time there are among them some bold spirits who demonstrate to their own satisfaction, and that of their hearers, how easy it would be for the Klan to seize the Government even by force. We are all sworn, say these reasoners, to obey all orders of the Grand Cyclops without question or hesitation. Now, suppose 50,000 of us should get orders to go singly to Washington, each armed with a pistol and knife; being all there, suppose we should be ordered to do certain things at a certain signal, what could prevent us seizing "the 'who' thing?" The absurdity of these dreams is not apparent to any of the Klan, and the mere fact that they are entertained even by a few of the bolder and more desperate spirits is of sufficient significance.

It is entirely too late to deny that the Kuklux Klan is not an organization extending over the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida, and Texas, or that its objects are not political. Nothing was ever more clearly proved, even by the most rigid interpretation of the rules of evidence, than these two facts. Variously known as the Constitutional Union Guards, the Union and Young Men's Democracy, the White Brotherhood, the Knights of the White Camelia, the Order of Invisible Empire, and Kuklux Klan, the oaths, rituals, disguises, grips, signs and passwords of these several organizations are almost identical, and in all of them, with the exception of the second named, the officers are known as Commander, South Commander, Grand Commander, Chief of Dominion, and Grand Cyclops. The detectives sent into the South by the Government, acting through Col. H. C. Whitley, Chief of the Secret Service, have established these facts beyond all cavil, and it is only necessary, in order to show the second fact, to quote a portion of the oath of the Supreme Degree of the Order, which reads as follows:

"I swear to forever oppose the social and political elevation of the negro to an equality with the whites, and that I will come at every hour of the moon to execute the trust confided to me by the Commander and the brethren. I furthermore swear that, in case of our being interrupted in the establishment of the principles for which we are contending, that I will regard no oath that will convict one of the members of this Order, but under all circumstances will stand by the Order in blood and death. I furthermore swear that I will give the signal cry of distress, only when in real distress, and that I will yield my life, if necessary, in aid of a brother giving the double cry of this degree. Lastly, I swear by this Bible, and this skull, and this blood, that should I ever prove unfaithful in any particular to the obligation I have now assumed, I hope to meet with the fearful and just penalty of the traitor, which is death, death, DEATH, at the hands of the brethren. So help me God."

Evidence to the same facts was obtained by the Congressional Kuklux Committee in such volume as to be almost worthless, [illegible] printed that no one [illegible]

[illegible] been to give the public some idea of the present condition and purposes of the order as derived from witnesses, who, within the past ten days have been within the dens of the Kuklux, as well as observers of their public proceedings. Their testimony is conclusive that even now, in the crippled days of the Kuklux, there is urgent need for the legislation so stigmatized in the resolutions of the Missouri sore-heads, from which the creed of the Cincinnati mal-contents is to be drawn.—Even yet it is evident that the "return to the methods of peace" by the repeal of the Kuklux law demanded by the "Liberals" would be instantly followed by an outbreak of that savagery in the South which is for the present repressed by that law alone. The Kuklux themselves say as much, and they can be relied upon to speak the truth of themselves in this respect if in no other. If there is any value whatever in evidence, it is the cause of humanity, not of a party, nor even of a Government, which is upheld in the South by that Kuklux law, which a Republican Congress passed and a Republican Administration has enforced with such excellent results.

LETTER FROM AUGUSTA.

Augusta, April 10, 1872.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

Never since the beginning of the war has there been such dull times among the liquor sellers as at present. Many are giving it up for want of customers. The new law, enacted the past winter, is going to do much throughout the State for temperance, though one man here to-day thinks he has found a "loop-hole" in it, but that remains to be tested. A man from Winthrop who has a lot of his own manufactured cider on hand, has just moved in here, bought out a noted liquor saloon, and says he is going to sell cider by the glass, and no laws will reach him.

The Reform Club meetings are still well attended, and are really doing a great work. We hope and trust that this movement will spread over the whole State. The club here numbers nearly seven hundred. Letters are received here almost every day, from different sections of the State, inquiring how to proceed, stating that they wish to get up a club in their several places.

Fears of another great freshet have been entertained, but the snow has been running off so fast of late, and the ice in the river is getting so rotten and thin, that there is but little to fear from this source now. There is neither sleighing nor wheeling in the country now, consequently business is rather dull here. Hay is growing cheaper instead of higher. KENNEBEC.

ANOTHER PRIMA DONNA FROM MAINE.—The Gazette di Saluzzo (Italy) of March 3d has the following complimentary notice of Miss Jeanie Armstrong of Wiscasset, in reference to her first appearance in the opera of Lucia di Lammermoor:

For the Signora Avigliana (Jeanie Armstrong) were awaiting incontestibly, the first honors—we will not stop longer to weave praises, for the voice and method of singing, of this excellent artist, in order not to repeat things we have already said, and re-said. The Signora sings the affecting and dramatic music of Donizetti's master-piece in a manner worthy of every praise. She does not lessen herself, she does not fail our promised desires or delude the hopes we had beforehand conceived of her, and we are pleased to bear witness in her honor that she revealing herself a good artist, in the part of "Tilda" ("Contessa di Amalfi") made herself still more appreciated in the much more important one of "Imogene" ("Roberto di Normandia"), and now appears still greater in that of "Lucia."

Mrs. Grant held her first reception since Lent, on Tuesday afternoon. There was a very large number of callers.

JOHN H. LYNDE, - - PROPRIETOR

THURSDAY APRIL 11 1872

OUR NAVY

The opposition press, in the indiscriminate assaults upon all that has been done and all that has been omitted by the administration of the government has recently struck an entirely new key in denouncing the inadequacy of our naval force. This outcry has been raised upon the pretext of the possibility of a rupture with Great Britain; the object being to distract attention from the creditable management of our foreign relations, which has gained for us under the wise and consistent policy of President Grant, a more influential position among the nations of the world than at any former period in our history. That the present strictures are not evoked by any ardent patriotism or a sincere desire for the maintenance of a powerful navy, is sufficiently evident from the fact that the loudest complaints proceed from those who were worse than indifferent as to the fate of the nation in its hour of greatest peril and who, throughout the great struggle in which the support of an expensive naval force was a paramount necessity, were constantly denouncing all expenditures in that department and in ceasing in their ... of that branch of the service which in the course of a four years conflict eclipsed the grandest achievements in the annals of naval warfare.

The people will hardly forget that the journals which are now so indignantly scolding at the meagreness of our naval force were but recently almost hysterical with rage at what they declared the tardy reduction of the army and navy, quoting every report of the movements of a foreign squadron as an example of the useless extravagance of the administration, and following the hero Farragut in his European cruise (with a fleet of modest proportions compared with that which England would have employed under similar circumstances,) with unceasing laments at the burden imposed upon the public treasury. The animus of these lofty criticisms is apparent, and every intelligent citizen knows that the very parties who are raising this outcry would be the first to oppose, as they have been hitherto, any and every appropriation for increasing the efficiency of our navy.

There are obvious reasons for the present condition of our naval force, which these critics purposely ignore, but which are fully appreciated by the people of the country. It has never been our policy to maintain a large standing army or a great naval force in time of peace, and among the first measures which received attention at the close of the war were those providing for the prompt reduction of both branches of the military service to the most economical proportions. During the rebellion we were forced to impress into the service a large number of vessels which proved extremely useful for the emergency but which were not adapted to the purposes of a permanent navy and were consequently disposed of. In the course of that struggle there were also developed entirely new principles of naval warfare, in the employment of iron clad vessels and the demonstration of the formidable character of submarine torpedoes. Our government was not laggard in recognizing the new elements of warfare, but on the contrary, succeeded in the midst of an exciting civil war in bringing to its service the most powerful and invulnerable marine batteries ever put afloat. The monitors with the Dahlgren and Rodman guns which formed their armament, were ... the careful and painstaking experiment on the part of our naval authorities ... charges of extravagance ... by the same carpers who now ... at the inadequacy of our force.

The lessons of our civil war overturned the traditional theories of naval ... of the maritime nations of the Old World have ever since been busily and most expensively engaged in trying to solve the problems of irresistible ordnance and impregnable armor. Our iron clads ... vindicated their ... under such a rain of artillery as at Charleston) as no other fleet could have ... the prejudice of the quarter-deck against the inconvenience and ... of the submerged batteries, combined with doubts of their adaptability for mid-ocean warfare ... naturally induced our authorities to defer adding to our large fleet of monitors until the result of foreign experiments ... England has spent ... in the effort to improve upon the ... iron clads, and with what success may be gathered from the Parliamentary debates, the admissions of the Admiralty and the ... fate of the "Captain" ... costly of modern experiments ... construction of broadside ... French iron clad ... which was ... in proportions to that of ... other radical defeats ... being unable to render any practical service in the contest through inability to operate successfully against the enemy's seaports with vessels of such ponderous weight and excessive draft.

It will be readily seen that large expenditures in the construction of naval vessels at this experimental period, would have involved the risk of spending time and money upon vessels which might prove worse than useless by the time they were actually needed. Such expenditures would have been bitterly denounced, and even the ... experiments with improved engines of warfare which have been for some time progressing have been unsparingly criticized, the Secretary of the Navy coming in for a full share of vituperation and slander in connection with every outlay for the testing of inventions and improvements. The truth is that the iron clad navies of Europe have not yet demonstrated their adaptability to ocean warfare while for coast and harbor fighting they are not to be compared to our monitors. We have still many of the best vessels which we had before the war, with a number of those since constructed, and our iron clad fleet is undoubtedly competent to defend our harbors from any naval attack which could be made. We have some of the best ordnance, in all appliances and methods of naval practice we are certainly up to the standard of our rivals and in many essentials far ahead of them; the personnel of our navy has its endorsement in the history of the past ten years and if it is considered by our people desirable to maintain immense fleets of war vessels in time of peace we can build, maintain and equip them so as to compete with the world. This will cost money, however and expenditure means taxation and we do not believe the people desire to squander millions in anticipation of improbable contingencies of war.

Our navy should doubtless be somewhat strengthened, and the Department has repeatedly recommended provision for this purpose. When the people and Congress desire a large addition to our force, the administrative authorities will not be slow to carry out their desire. In the mean time there is as little consistency as there is of justice in the clamorous outcry that has been raised because our government has not maintained, contrary to the policy of our people, a naval establishment of the enormous proportions of those deemed necessary to preserve the balance of power between the jealous monarchies of Europe.

The Commercial is perfectly well aware that our criticism of its course in parading the visit of a gentleman to this city on private business as one of the "speedy" fruits of its powerful influence abroad, was not based upon a mistaken identity. The effrontery of such an intimation is even worse than its original misrepresentation. Our contemporary deliberately attempted to bolster up its pretensions by giving its readers to understand that it had attracted hither parties proposing an enterprise of vast importance to this section. We do not choose to discuss farther a matter which no one was authorized to make public and simply reiterate our assertion that we were fully aware of the object of the gentleman's visit long before his arrival, that he was not prepared for any such announcement in the papers, that his visit was in no way connected with or influenced by the movement inaugurated here in behalf of manufactures, that his inquiries were based upon a statement published months ago in the WHIG AND COURIER, and that he had never seen and did not know the name, even, of the Commercial, until after his arrival in this city. Its ordinary habit of self laudation is too absurd to warrant any attention, but this exhibition of its "enterprise" was too flagrant and we punctured it. That is all.

Washington specials announce that resolutions were introduced in the House on Tuesday afternoon by Hon. John A. Peters, declaring that the American claims for indirect damages in our Case at Geneva should be waived. After fully setting forth the history of the negotiations, the resolution is as follows:—

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this House that the said claims for indirect damages should be held and considered to be waived by the said recited intimation of the American commissioners that these would be waived in case of an amicable settlement of the matters in dispute, it being clear that a settlement of those matters by and under the award of the said Tribunal of Arbitration will be an amicable settlement thereof, and that the said claims for indirect damages are incompatible with the terms and provisions of the said Treaty, and that the propositions contended for in the said case in respect to the obligations of neutrals as above recited are unsound, and incompatible with American precedents and the genius of our institutions.

Our report does not state whether Mr. Peters favored the resolutions, but they were referred to the Foreign Relations Committee which has hitherto manifested no desire to interfere with the management of our case before the arbitration, and it is not likely that any action will be taken calculated to embarrass the administration in maintaining its position.

We have more reports of movements and counter movements in Mexico. Palacios had declared martial law in Matamoras and established surveillance of all traffic on the Rio Grande, which was expected to result in collision between American steamboatmen and the Mexican authorities.

The Boston Advertiser closes an article upon the utter failure of Dana and his crew to maintain the flagrant charges so persistently reported in that slanderer's organ, the N. Y. Sun, as follows:—

What is to be done in such a case, when the accuser not only fails to prove his charges, but retreats to his coward's castle the moment he is challenged to prove them? Mr. Dana's withdrawal from the prosecution of the case is only less ignominious than his entrance upon it. It is a confession that, as the charges were made without reason, they may be dismissed without consideration. And more than this, it is a fair illustration of the spirit in which the warfare against the administration has been carried on for the last three or four months. Nearly a score of investigations are still in progress, and very few, if any of them, with a better foundation than this one.

The Boston Globe extends cold comfort to the "senior Senator," in the following paragraph:—

In short, we look upon this whole hue and cry as to the sale of arms, as much like Cervantes' hero dashing at the wind mills. A certain uneasy Senator sees a "chance"; he has been lying in wait for it, fortune seems to favor him, and he throws down his glove, mounts Rozinante, sets his spear at rest, and presto! finds himself unhorsed and flying through the air, in opposition to all laws of nature and propriety. Or, in other words, the Massachusetts Senator exemplifies the instance of "the engineer hoist by his own petard."

Quite a scene occurred in the House on Monday when Gen. Negley of Pennsylvania presented a resolution to inquire into the management of the Union and Central Pacific railroads with power to send for persons and papers. Mr. Brooks of N. Y., excitedly objected to the introduction. Mr. Negley inquired if it was proper for one of the heaviest stockholders to object. Mr. Brooks retorted that it was more so than for members to act as the tool of Wall street jobbers. There was considerable excitement but Mr. Brooks would not withdraw his objection. He declared that publicly and privately, he had evidence to show that Mr. N.'s resolution was made in the interests of the stock operators' ring.

To the Honorable John E. Godfrey, Judge of Probate within and for the County of Penobscot.

Whereas there is outstanding against the estate of Samuel H. Dale which is in the course of settlement in the Probate Court, and rendered insolvent, a claim against said estate of $86 500 by notes of Palmer & Johnson endorsed by S. H. Dale & Co., (said Company consisting of Nathan P. Kellogg whose estate is in Bankruptcy,) for which said Dale's estate is wholly liable and whereas Palmer & Johnson are equitably liable for $41,000 of said claim, said S. H. Dale & Co being liable for the remainder and whereas said Palmer & Johnson have proposed to release the estate of S. H. Dale of said $47,000 of said claim, by an arrangement with the holders of said notes on conditions that said Palmer & Johnson can be relieved from the remainder. And whereas we are satisfied that it will be for the interest of the creditors of said S. H. Dale's estate to compromise said claim by accepting the proposition of said Palmer & Johnson on the payment by said S. H. Dale's estate of the $44,500. We ask that we may be authorized so to compromise said claim, provided that first, all other indebtedness of said Palmer & Johnson to said S. H. Dale & Co (if any exist) be paid, as in duty bound will ever pray. F. A. WILSON, N. H. DILLINGHAM, Administrators of Estate of S. H. Dale. March 26 1872.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

NEW YORK.

AN APPEAL BY THE COMMITTEE OF SEVENTY.

NEW YORK, April 10. The Committee of seventy has issued an address to the citizens warning them not to relax their efforts for reform. They state that nothing of a permanent nature for the relief of the city and the reorganization of its government and affairs has yet been consummated. The address seems to regard the defeat of the charter as inevitable. The citizens are urged irrespective of party, religion or nationality to organize reform associations for the purpose of securing a pure government.

THE BAR AND THE JUDGES.

At a meeting of the Bar Association last night the chairman of the Judiciary Committee presented a report of the testimony taken before the Legislative Committee which has recently been investigating the charges against the Judges. The report contained little testimony in addition to that already published, but it is claimed that sufficient had been obtained to secure the impeachment if not the removal of Judges Barnard and Cardozo. The report contains nothing in regard to Judge McCunn's case.

THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT

says that although though no direct pecuniary bribes were expected to be found, still they had traced presents received from successful litigants and political favorites. The power to issue injunctions, appoint referees and receivers and make allowances, the Committee state, has enriched favorites regardless of the damage to other parties. They instance the case of James Fisk against the Union Pacific Railroad, which caused a loss of five million dollars to the Company, Judge Barnard boasting of the terror the order created. Another was wherein Barnard compelled the Bank of New York, then insolvent, to pay all its assets, amounting to $400,000, to the brokers of Fisk, Gould & Co., and $15,000 to a receiver of his own appointment, leaving the other creditors without a cent. Numerous other cases of the most flagrant misuse of authority are cited against Barnard and Cardozo.

THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE JOBS.

The Brooklyn Reform Committee have found that one Kingsley was to receive 5 per cent. on all monies expended by the East River Bridge Co., in return for his supposed influence with the New York and Brooklyn "rings" in sale of stock. He had received $175,000, and claimed $225,000, but learning of the inquiry paid back $50,000.

STOCK AND COST.

It seems that while Brooklyn subscribed for 1-16 of the stock, the city has no voice in its direction, the company being controlled by parties owning less than 1-10 of the stock. The work will cost $15,000,000, only one third of which is yet raised.

JERSEY CITY BOARDS REPUBLICAN.

The result of the election in Jersey city yesterday, was the choice of O'Neill, (Democrat) for Mayor. Seven Republican Aldermen and eight Republicans in the Board of Education, which gives them a majority in both of those boards and a Republican majority in the board of freeholders.

AFTER A ROGUE.

An indictment for forgery was found against Henry R. Conklin, late Secretary of the Market Savings' Bank. An officer with a requisition from President Grant has gone to Montreal to secure his extradition. It is stated that he made a full confession of the irregularities of the bank implicating other officers.

THE JAIL DELIVERY.

Arguments on the applications for the release of some 300 prisoners on the ground of illegality in the Court of Sessions were to have been heard this morning, but the official opinion of the Court of Appeals has not yet been received. The cases were carried over till next Tuesday.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE met to-day to take action in reference to the election of delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, but as only a few members were present the meeting was adjourned.

A WRIT OF ERROR

was granted in the Supreme Court Chambers to-day, removing the case of Dutch Heinrich to the general term of the Supreme Court.

JUDGE BRADY

to-day granted a stay of proceedings on the judgment obtained by John L. Brower against the city for $5000 and which was levied on the city fire apparatus.

ARREST OF A SWINDLER.

George Gordon with several aliases, claiming to be Earl Aberdeen, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff to-day on an affidavit of Jay Gould, charging him with converting to his own name 600 shares of the capital stock of the Erie Railway entrusted to him to sell.

THE TREASURER

of the East River Bridge Co. states that Kinsley gave his entire time to the superintendence of the work and was limited to a profit of 5 per cent. with the additional restriction that his aggregate profits on the expenditure of building foundations and carrying the towers up to high water mark should not exceed $125,000. At 5 per cent. he would have been entitled to $175,000, but he only received $125,000. Tweed, Connolly and Sweeney were directors before the New York exposures. Connolly was ex-officio director by virtue of his position as Comptroller of New York. Tweed and Sweeney were subscribers to the stock on the same terms as other persons. They have paid up all instalments except one of 10 per cent., which is unpaid and the non-payment of which will involve the loss of their stock. The Treasurer believes the affairs of the Company are managed economically and honestly.

WHISKEY FRAUDS.

A large number of bench warrants for the arrest of persons indicted for whiskey frauds are in the hands of the U. S. Marshal, but no person has yet been arrested.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT

occurred to-day on the Midland Railroad near Hackensack. The Saddle river bridge gave way and precipitated the train into the river. John Donemus, brakeman, was instantly killed and 25 or 30 passengers were taken from the wreck more or less injured. The baggagemaster had both legs broken. David Blaurelt, conductor, was badly bruised and is in a precarious condition.

IN GENERAL.

Rev. Henry M. Taylor was installed this evening pastor of Broadway Tabernacle.

Jack Sheperd, a Philadelphia burglar, who was arrested this forenoon, escaped this afternoon from a cell in the Police headquarters where he was confined.

Daniel Hoag fatally stabbed his cousin Robert Hoag during a quarrel at Strauch's piano factory yesterday. Both are boys.

Honk Smith, who has been suffering from inflamatory rheumatism, is recovering.

FROM THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE EARTHQUAKE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10. Letters from Lone Pine say that the whole of Owens Valley was moved southward fourteen feet. Over 7000 shocks had occurred to date and they still continued, but not with sufficient force to do damage. The earthquake of March 26th hurled immense rocks down the cliffs into the valley of the Yosemite, smashing pine trees of large size to splinters. An Indian runner brings a dispatch from the mouth of the Colorado river which says the earthquake caused immense waves to roll up the Gulf of California, doing considerable damage to the shipping.

FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 10, 1872.

SENATE.

Mr. Sherman moved to refer to the Committee on Elections the House message returning the Senate tariff bill. He said that the power of the Senate to amend a revenue bill in any way that it thought best had been disputed now for the first time in the history of our Government. The Committee on Finance had considered the subject and had agreed unanimously that the Senate had the same right to amend a revenue bill as to amend any other bill, but as the rights and privileges of the Senate were involved, he thought it best to send this matter to the Committee on Privileges and elections. It was so referred.

Mr. Frelinghuysen from the Committee on Judiciary reported without amendment a bill supplementary to the enforcement of the act of May 31st, 1871, providing that the Circuit Court of the U. S., for a any judicial district in which at any time the circuit judge or district judge designated by the circuit judge shall hold a circuit court for the purpose of said act shall hereafter be deemed the circuit court mentioned in its 2d and 13th sections.

Mr. Pomeroy introduced a bill to establish a U. S. District Court in the Indian country.

Mr. Frelinghuysen by request introduced a bill giving the American and East Indian Telegraph Co. the right to have and maintain lines of telegraph cables between American and Asiatic coasts.

Mr. Sumner presented the resolutions of the Massachusetts Legislature relative to the French spoliation claims, which were ordered to be printed.

Mr. Howe from Committee on Public Lands reported a bill for the relief of homestead settlers in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan who suffered by the fires of last autumn, passed.

The consideration of the Indian appropriation bill was resumed, and Mr. Hitchcock's amendment prescribing the manner in which claims for Indian depredations shall be settled was adopted and the bill was passed.

Mr. Bayard in behalf of himself and Mr. Fenton as the minority of the Finance Committee submitted their views in favor of granting the petition of certain importers in New York and Boston for refunding duties paid on Russian hemp.

HOUSE.

Mr. Hill of N. J., reported a bill abolishing the franking privilege, after July, 1873.

Mr. Carroll of N. Y., opposed the bill and offered an amendment excepting public documents and petitions to Congress.

Mr. Potter of N. Y., regarded it as buncombe, and offered an amendment that the Departments and clerks of the House be furnished stamping machines.

Mr. Butler of Mass., opposed the bill, saying that the outcry for it came only from metropolitan newspapers, who are anxious to be the only organs of communication between the people and their Representatives. Metropolitan papers were anxious to crowd out and crush down small local papers throughout the country, and to have in their own hands the character, fame and position of every public man, so that by their associated telegrams and their associated standers and scandals they can crush down the public men. He had voted for a like bill in the last Congress, but with the same understanding on which all other members done so, that the Senate would not pass it, and that it would be all right. (Laughter.)

Mr. Sargent of Cal., moved that the bill and amendment be recommitted.

Mr. Holman of Ind.—With the power to report any time.

Mr. Sargent—I do not consent to that.

Mr. Holman—I call for the yeas and nays on the motion to recommit the bill, because that kills the bill.

Mr. Sargent—The bill is in such a position now that the House cannot pass it till it is disentangled.

The yeas and nays were not ordered, only 13 members rising to order them, and an effort to have tellers ordered on the yeas and nays was also a failure, at which there was much laughter in the House. The bill was then recommitted.

The House then went into Committee on the Legislative Appropriation bill.

There was a long discussion on question of appropriating $50,000 for the expenses of the civil service reform system. The debate, which was generally adverse to the proposed reform, was carried on by Messrs. Garfield, Butler of Massachusetts, Willard, Maynard, Coburn, Conger, Potter, Dawes, Beck, McCrary and Sargent.

The remarks of Messrs. Garfield, Dawes and Willard were in favor of the proposed reform system.

No vote was taken on the proposition—when the Committee rose and the House adjourned.

FROM ALBANY.

TAMMANY TRICKS AT THE CITY ELECTION—LIGHTS PUT OUT AND BALLOT BOXES STUFFED—THE CITY CARRIED BY THE REPUBLICANS.

ALBANY, April 10. The election yesterday, of Thatcher (Dem.) for Mayor, is still in doubt. In the 4th ward caucuses there were bad doings. The lights were put out, ballots were seized upon, and the roughs were very disorderly. The first count of the votes before the lights were put out would have defeated Thatcher. The second count made a difference in his favor of 300. The Republican inspector was compelled to sign the returns, which he did under protest. The Republicans elect 9 out of 16 Alderman, and they also have about 4 majority in the Supervisors. Greene (Rep.) for Recorder, has about 1000 majority.

LATER.

Evening. The Evening Journal claims as a result of the election yesterday, 9 Republicans to 7 Democrats in the Common Council. The Board of Supervisors will now stand 18 Republicans to 11 Democrats. Greene, (Rep.) for Recorder, is elected. The nominal returns make Thatcher (Dem.) Mayor by a slender majority, but there is the strongest evidence that Judson was clearly elected.

The freshet continues, obstructing business on the docks which are overflowed.

—The Western mail train last night arrived half an hour late.

—Dry day for news yesterday, notwithstanding the rain.

—A sidewalk is greatly needed on the east side of Broad street.

—Wm. H. Mansfield has been elected engineer of the steam fire engines.

—The Northern Lights were very brilliant between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning.

—The freight traffic on the railroads is extraordinarily large just now.

—Yesterday was a genuine April day, with frequent showers, heavy mist, and bits of sunshine interspersed.

—An adjourned meeting of the Executive Council will be held at the State House on Tuesday, 23d inst.

—The schooner Mary B. Smith, owned in Castine, has been sold to parties in Thomaston for $2 800.

—The masts have been put into the new three-masted schooner building in Oakes & Son's yard in Brewer.

—Lewis Carvell, esq., Manager of Government Railways in New Brunswick, passed through this city yesterday on his way to Ottawa.

—We learn that Rev. Robert Collyer of Chicago, the well-known divine and orator, will lecture in this city on the evening of Fast Day, 18th inst.

—The ice in the stream grows weaker and thinner. We shall take a few days this side of June 10th as the date on which navigation will be opened, on account of the last storm.

—The friends of the Penobscot Central Railroad and citizens residing on the proposed line, from this city to Dover, will hold a meeting at Kenduskeag village on Tuesday, 16th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M.

—An unsettled question as to the ownership of a wash-tub created ill-feeling between two women on Hancock street, last evening, and from words arose blows. The neighbors interfered and peace was restored.

—Shippers of freight to all points west can now send direct from this city without transhipment, as arrangements have been perfected to run adjustable gauge cars over the Maine Central and Grand Trunk Railroads.

—Our correspondent writes that the Baptist church and society in Etna have raised funds and commenced a thorough repair on their meeting-house, and will have it ready to accommodate the Baptist Association, which meets with this church in September.

—We learn that quite a number of families in this city have made arrangements to send to Sweden for servant girls and cooks, by purchasing tickets for their passage to this country—the money thus expended to be refunded from the girls' wages. Mr. Magnus A. R. Lindberg, at Chas. Sorentz's, will furnish further particulars.

VILLA & MINER. We understand that Mr. Harry Miner, Manager of Villa & Miner's comic opera company, has offered to give one-half the net proceeds of their six entertainments next week to the Fire Department of this city, and that the different companies will hold special meetings to-night to consider the matter.

—The supply of corn, flour and coal is not large in this city at the present time, [illegible]

[illegible] stocks, and prices have been very moderate.

BANGOR COUNCIL, R. & S. M. At the regular meeting of Bangor Council, R. and S. M., held at Masonic Hall last evening, the following officers for the ensuing year were installed by P. T. I. G. M. Anderson:—Chas. I. Collamore, T. I. M.; A. B. Marston, R. I. M.; E. F. Dillingham, I. M.; Jno. Burbank Rec. and Treas.; Job Collett, M. of C.; Geo. W. Whitney, C. of G.; S. R. Hills, C. of C.; Z. Grover, Sent.

—Constable Head of Brewer was notified to arrest William Sylvey of Eddington, who was charged with assault with an axe on John O'Toole, and found him just stepping on board the E. & N. A. train yesterday morning. The arrest was made and Sylvey taken before the Police Court, but the Judge decided that the evidence did not sustain the charge and dismissed the case.

STATE FAIR. The Trustees of the State Agricultural Society will meet at the Penobscot Exchange at ten o'clock this forenoon to decide whether or not the annual exhibition turn. It is to be hoped that sufficient advantages will be offered to induce the location of the fair here. Several of our energetic citizens have taken the matter in hand, and we trust their efforts will prove successful.

BISHOP'S SERENADERS. This favorite company gave another entertainment in Norombega Hall last evening to an audience which would have been much larger had the weather been less threatening. The performance was far above the average of minstrel entertainments, and gave great satisfaction in every part, as proved by the frequency of the hearty laughter and applause of those present. Another performance will be given this evening, with change of programme.

A PLEASANT OCCASION. A large number of ladies and gentlemen, members of the Second Baptist church, and other friends of Rev. S. L. B. Chase, (whose recent resignation of his pastorate has been noted in these columns,) paid him a visit Tuesday evening, and presented him with an elegant bound set of Zell's Encyclopedia, with several other tasteful and appropriate gifts to the value of over $100, as a testimonial of their respect and esteem for their late pastor and friend.

—A gentleman doing business in this city has in his office a fine large and costly calendar clock, which stopped Tuesday night and could not be persuaded to go yesterday morning by any amount of coaxing on the part of the owner or his clerks. In the afternoon, all attempts having failed, a watchmaker was sent for, who called for the key, and after being wound up the clock "went" without any further difficulty, nothing being the matter except that it had run down. The calendar on the clock quietly points out the fact that the month is April.

HAY. Fifty-two bundles of pressed hay, brought from Fredericton over the E. & N. A. Railway, were sold at auction by R. S. Prescott yesterday forenoon, at $27.50 to $29 per ton. Considering the season and the small hay crop of last year, the prices paid for hay here are remarkably low, owing to the ease with which it is brought by rail from Aroostook and the Provinces. A gentleman well posted in the matter informed us yesterday that he had no doubt hay would be $45 per ton here were it not for the E. & N. A Railway.

FROM NEW BRUNSWICK TO CALIFORNIA. This morning, Mr. H. T. Clark, General Baggage Agent of the European & North American Railway, starts a travelling bag from St. John, N. B., checked through to San Francisco, Cal., and on its arrival here to be re-checked for St. John. The baggage agents on the several lines of railroad from the Atlantic to the Pacific forming a direct line of travel from the East to the West, are requested to give the luggage free passage and have the persons in charge of baggage at points of transfer, enter on the way-bill the date and hour of its arrival and departure, and give it speedy passage over their several lines, so that "a journal of travel" may be published on its return, showing the travelling public the shortest time from shore to shore. The agents of the Associated Press are also requested to keep the public advised from day to day of the whereabouts of the baggage.

HOLDEN TOWN MEETING. At an adjourned town meeting in Holden on Monday last, the request of the Holden Steam Mill Company came up again, for exemption of the property of the company from taxation for the term of four years. Owing to the short-sighted policy of the majority of the voters present, they voted not to so exempt, whereupon Mr. Charles Burr, a prominent member of the Mill company, who was elected first Selectman at the March meeting for the fourth successive year, immediately resigned, and A. B. Farrington was elected in his stead. The town then voted to accept the report of the locating committee for the Town House, which report locates the Town House on the vacant lot between the Holden parsonage and M. L. Jones' store at Holden Centre. The building committee for the Town House are Z. R. Farrington, Wm. Rogers and Chas. Burr.

THE TOPSHAM BRIDGE. The citizens of Topsham have petitioned the Maine Central Railroad Co. to discontinue their old location in that town, and instead of rebuilding the bridge which was destroyed by fire on Wednesday, to run the road through the village and connect with the Androscoggin division thereby saving the cost of a new bridge and giving Topsham better railroad facilities. It is thought the road could be run through the village as proposed at a much less cost than an iron bridge could be built for over the old route. Nearly all the land owners in the village are ready to give the railroad the land required for the proposed new route. There are, however, difficulties in the way. It would necessitate a Y at the junction of the tracks of the Augusta and Lewiston roads, and trains from Augusta would have to back across the bridge into Brunswick depot in order to be headed for Portland, and trains from Portland would have to back across the bridge until the Y is reached.

HORACE GREELEY'S POSITION. Horace Greeley publishes in the Tribune the following statement as to the course of that paper in the coming campaign:—

First—If there shall be Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President in the field, we propose to support that Republican ticket which seems most likely to succeed.

Second—If the main issue in the canvass shall be protection against free trade, we shall (no matter as to candidates) be found on the side of protection.

Third—But if (as we hope and expect) there shall be two Republican tickets and none other presented with any hope of success, we shall favor that one whose election will be in our judgment most likely to promote economy in public expenditure, purity in legislation and administration, substantial unanimity in upholding for all citizens a complete equality of rights under the laws, and hasten the return of fraternal concord and mutual good will between those who were arrayed against each other in sanguinary strife throughout our great civil war. Such is our position, and it will not be affected by the nomination of A or B, C or D, at Cincinnati, Philadelphia or elsewhere.

Greeley further says that the Tribune will not be an "organ," and will print no campaign editions, whoever may be the candidates.

JOHN BRIGHT AND THE REPUBLICANS. John Bright in reply to an address from some English Republicans declaring that he was destined to be the first President of the Republic of Great Britain, writes that he hopes it will be a long time before the English people are called upon to decide between a Republic and a Monarchy. Their ancestors he says, settled the matter for them, at least for the present, and posterity must decide it in the future. Mr. Bright expresses doubt as to whether the Republicans are his real friends.

The Washington National Republican of Tuesday says Senator Sumner has announced his intention to make no further opposition to the re-nomination of President Grant, and if the Philadelphia Convention selects him as its standard bearer of the Republican party, Mr. Sumner will steadily labor to secure his re-election.

Thirty thousand immigrants have arrived at New York since the 1st of January.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

The new Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., is the most convenient to all points of interest.

DEBILITY of the digestive organs, chronic or otherwise, is entirely removed by the aid of Atwood's QUININE TONIC BITTERS. Dyspepsia, depression of spirits, sick-headache, heartburn, and nervousness, speedily disappear by its use. They are also the standard spring medicine.

DURING the year ending Feb. 1st, 1870, Mr. Fellows paid nearly eleven thousand dollars for advertising in the Dominion alone. He is doubtless the most extensive advertiser in the British Provinces.

PIANOS, ORGANS AND MELODIONS.—For the best and cheapest Musical Goods of all kinds go to Patten & Wheelden's.

No reasonable doubt can now exist of the great efficacy of SMOLANDER'S BUCHU, for the removal or counteracting of kidney, bladder and glandular diseases, mental and physical debility, female complaints generally, and all maladies of the urino-genital organs, for family physicians of note consider it to be the standard remedy.

WARREN'S COUGH BALSAM is a household necessity. Don't take a worthless article in it's place, when the great value of this is unquestioned. mar 26 d&w UNPRECEDENTED—The sale of Dr. Dale's American Bitters. The demand constantly increasing, and everybody benefitted by them. Prepared and sold by BUTLER, Apothecary.

WEDDING VISITING AND BUSINESS CARDS. We are prepared to print cards of all kinds in the neatest manner, and with latest styles of type.

LYNDE HOTEL.—The proprietor of Lynde Hotel at Rockland, has been at great expense to furnish travellers a neat and comfortable home, and we are pleased to learn that his enterprise is meeting with the reward so justly merited.

MASKS AND FACES.—Ladies who mask their faces and necks with enamels endanger their health to no purpose. The plaster work deceives nobody. There is but one article known which will restore a blemished complexion or create external brilliancy and bloom where they have never heretofore existed, and that article is HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM. It performs this toilet miracle by infusing vitality into the skin. The floral and herbal juices of which it is composed gently stimulate the circulation in the minute blood vessels, and brace the network of nerves through which they pass. Thus quickened and strengthened the external covering soon acquires a fresh and healthful hue, and every trace of sallowness disappears. The palest cheeks derive from the beautifying baptism of this delightful cosmetic a warmer hue, and the arms, hands and neck, a blonde lustre which the charlatans, who profess to make ladies "beatiful forever" with their poisonous cement, can never hope to imitate.

IMMEDIATELY.—If every family knew the value of Miss Sawyer's Salve they would immediately purchase a box and never be without it. If your Druggist is out of this Salve and neglects to keep supplied, send seventy-five cents as directed in another column, and say you saw the advertisement in this paper.

NOTICE
—TO—
MILLMEN & MILL OWNERS

The inventor calls the attention of Saw Filers to his invention of a

SAW JOINTER,

To Joint Circular Saws of all sizes.

A man with little experience, can make his saw run, with this machine, as well as an experienced man can without it, because with this invention the saw is jointed perfectly square, thus giving him a sure guide to file by, having a tendency to even up the teeth, and not lose the corners of his teeth, making a great saving of files.

The Inventor claims that one-third more lumber can be sawed in the same time, besides sawing his lumber smooth and even, with one third less power.

The Inventor, having had twenty five years experience in filing Circular Saws, warrants this machine to do more than he claims for it or he will forfeit the machine; and also that every experienced mill-man will adopt it at once, the price being only five dollars, that being a trifle for so valuable an improvement.

Please call and examine the machines at KIMBALL & SANDFORD'S Saw Factory, No. 34 Exchange Street, or at the Hinckley & Egery Iron Co.'s Works, corner of Oak and Washington streets, where one thousand of them are being manufactured.

Her hands are still, her face is pale
No more in gladness noted she;

And lay her where the violets blow.

But not beneath a marble urn

In peace to rest I only [illegible]

And gray old trees of hoary crest

To make the soothing music that

And drop their dead leaves on her mound

And through their leaves the robins sing
And ripening in the autumn sun
The acorns and the chestnuts fall

Shall greet her with its earliest cry

When, turning round the [illegible] track

Lies withered where the violets blow
